

Named for the sixth month of the year and a semi-precious stone said to protect travelers by night and water, Junestone is the musical outpouring of alt-funk fusion bassist and jazz-pop vocalist Olivia Brown. Grounded in America's Classical Music and 90s alternative hits alike, Olivia's take on songwriting is dynamic, refreshing, and as sincere as it is beguiling.

Junestone is based out of Hamilton, Ontario, where Olivia was born and grew up. Inspired by images of Canadian landscapes, her lyrics often depict moments of self-realization, assertiveness, and having a great time. Tracks from Junestone's first full-length album will begin release in 2024.

Recordings and live shows often feature Borys Franiczek (guitar), Ian Aisling (keyboards), and Justin McHugh (drums). The band's performance experience includes T.U. Jazz Fest 2020, Ontario Place Summer Live Music Festival 2021 and 2022, and Royal Botanical Gardens' SummerTide and WinterTide events in 2022 and 2023.
